I have over twenty-five years experience in the construction industry. I have run my own construction company in Madrid, Spain and my current and past customers are to the right of this page. I do all phases of construction on medium to small jobs. I do high quality work and pay attention to detail. I take pride in my work and the end result reflects it. I do one job at a time so that I am fully concentrated on the work. Some of my skills...

I do all the work myself to assure the highest quality. I am fully licensed, insured and bonded.
